Be very impressed when you step inside this stunning apartment, the first thing you will notice is the amazing views, opening up to an enormous central lounge and dining zone with beautiful timber flooring.

The large well-designed kitchen adjoins the central living area and comes with impressive stone benches and splashback, and a feature island bench, and includes stainless steel appliances.

The main zone further opens out to an entertainer's balcony which has stunning Yarra River, Bolte Bridge vistas and Port Phillip Bay views.

A master bedroom includes access to its own private balcony area as well as ample built-in robes and a large well-appointed double vanity ensuite with plenty of storage
